Based on first-hand accounts, and told through the perspectives of a "lower deck" seaman and the ship's "upper deck" commander, HMAS Bataan, 1952 details key episodes and events of the naval war in Korea.

HMAS Bataan, 1952: An Australian warship in the Korean War

A unique account of Australia's involvement in the Korean War, this record tells the story of destroyer HMAS Bataan's 1952 tour of duty. Written from two contrasting perspectives—namely from a "lower deck" seaman and an "upper deck" commander—this narrative draws on a variety of archival sources, including the ship's monthly log, a collection of poetry written aboard the ship during the war, letters, and photographs. Peppared with intimate insights from the unpublished notebooks ...
